SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

While on supervised release pursuant to this Judgment, the defendant shall also comply with the following additional special conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health treatment. The costs of these programs are to be paid by the defendant as directed by the Probation Officer.
- 2) If he tests positive for illicit drugs, the defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include residential treatment and testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, with partial costs to be paid by the defendant, all as directed by the probation officer.
- 3) The defendant shall waive all rights of confidentiality regarding substance abuse/mental health treatment in order to allow the release of information to the United States Probation Office and authorize communication between the probation officer and the treatment provider.
- 4) The defendant shall not have any contact with any known or purported members of any designated foreign terrorist organization during his period of supervision.
- 5) The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the computer monitoring program as administered by the Probation Office. The defendant shall consent to installation of computer monitoring software on any computer to which the defendant has access. Installation shall be performed by the probation officer. The software may restrict and/or record any and all activity on the computer, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. A notice will be placed on the computer at the time of installation to warn others of the existence of the monitoring software. The defendant shall also notify others of the existence of the monitoring software. The defendant shall not remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or in any way circumvent the software. The costs of the monitoring shall be paid by the defendant.
- 6) During the term of supervision, the defendant shall not possess or utilize any video gaming system, console, or other such device which would enable contact and/or the sharing of data with other individuals known or unknown to the defendant.
